PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

April, 2014

Dear Members, Friends, Spouses, Children, Grandchildren and all Helpers,

Thank you so much for making the last two weekends very special and so successful for HSLBA. On Saturday night, March 15, the Houston Symphony performed at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church on Upper Bay Road in Nassau Bay. The Worship Center was filled with an enthusiastic and delighted audience. As I reported to the Houston Symphony staff: "What a wonderful, magical evening. The 750+ audience was mesmerized and loud in its approval and applause." Thanks to everyone who bought a ticket, sold a ticket, told their friends and neighbors about the Houston Symphony concert and helped in any way... We hope our visible appreciation will inspire the Houston Symphony to return next year.

This past weekend, March 22 and 23, HSLBA held the 13th annual "A Day by the Bay" Home Tour, featuring the West Mansion. Since there were over 300 volunteers involved, I cannot thank each one individually, but I would like to send special thanks and enormous appreciation to the two Home Tour Co-Chairs: Pat Biddle and Vicki Buxton. I would especially like to thank the generous home owners who allowed us to show their beautiful homes on this tour. Thanks also to the house chairs, the docents, the ticket sellers, the ticket takers and those who helped secure those homes. Thanks to the hard work, the great home and the gracious donation to us of the West Mansion for our fundraiser, this was a record-setting Home Tour. I am writing this before the income and expense amounts have been finalized, but we do know that more than 1300 visitors toured the West Mansion.

I am proud of what we accomplished this year and proud of HSLBA. We are all volunteers, with other lives, problems, families, but we have worked together this year with wonderful results. The school children who will receive the benefits of your financial support next year will, we know, be grateful, too. We hope that the music they hear in our educational programs will move and inspire them.

As Vicki Buxton said on Sunday night, "It took a village." Indeed it did. Thank you.

Patience Myers
President, HSLBA
