Ima Hogg Competition Service Opportunity

June 1, the HSLBA will be serving lunch to the members of the Houston Symphony and the competitors in the Ima Hogg Competition. We need volunteers to help serve at Rice University Shepherd School of Music from 11:30 a.m. to approximately 2:45 p.m. We also need donations of salads and/or desserts. ## A Musicological Moment with Martha

It has been an honor to serve as your President this year. Many thanks to all who had a part in making our Home Tour a success, especially to Nina McGlashan our Home Tour Chairperson.

On April 18 five of our HSLBA members got to experience first hand one of HSLBA's biggest projects each year - sending fifth graders to Jones Hall for a Houston Symphony Concert. We ushered for students from seven CCISD schools attending the concert that day. Maestro Robert Franz met the students at the door. They were excited and dressed in their very best! Brian del Signore, who presents percussion programs sponsored by HSLBA in local schools, went all the way up to the balcony to personally greet CCISD students. The program with music by Smetana, Debussy and Verdi was definitely not "watered down" for the audience. Maestro Franz explained complicated rhythm patterns such as 5/4 time coupled with 9/8 time with colorful graphics. It is worth all the hard work of a Home Tour when you see the excitement on students' faces and perhaps future musicians and symphony-goers.

The Houston Symphony has plenty more music in May and the summer before the new season begins in September. Our bus trip May 20 will enjoy pianist Emanuel Ax and a very creative presentation of Stravinsky's "Rite of Spring." Brahms "Requiem" will be performed the first weekend in May. Instead of the somber style of previous "Requiems" by other composers, Brahms' "Requiem" is written in the German language and excludes the "Dies Irae" (Day of Wrath). Instead, scripture verses showing the hope of eternal life are set to beautiful lyric music as only Brahms could write.

Whatever your choices, enjoy all the great music the Houston Area has to offer!
