

President's Message

Dear HSLBA Members:

What is the status of HSLBA? As you know, meetings and programs are suspended due to COVID-19 protection criteria required by the Houston Symphony organization. We cannot reasonably predict when we would be able to meet again -- anymore than we can receive assurance when the world will have protection from this dreadful virus.

The HSLBA mission has consistently been to provide music education programs in the schools and to assure that 5th grade students in CCISD could attend a live performance of the Houston Symphony Orchestra. These programs are also "On-hold."

The Houston Symphony Orchestra is experiencing some very difficult financial times. They had barely recovered from the devastating flood damage from Harvey, when they were hit by COVID-19: contractually-required musician expenses, suspended performances. . . and reduced fund raising activities!

This situation has led to some decisions that have affected HSLBA finances. Funds in our operating account (composed primarily of dues and used to pay performers, hold events, etc.) have always been "swept" into the general accounts of the Symphony at the end of each fiscal year (June 1). This year, the Symphony also found it necessary to sweep funds in our Education Account to Symphony general funds. Funds in our Education Account were composed of those from our Home Tour, gifts and grants. These funds had historically not been swept at the beginning of each fiscal year, rather allowed to accumulate (and used only for educational purposes). This means our education account no longer exists. Like any business, the Symphony has every right to move funds as needed.

The Symphony provided funding in our operating account ($5000); however, must approve all spending requests -- of any type or at any level.

HSLBA membership, even before COVID-19, has steadily declined over the past several years as has our ability to raise funds. The last several HSLBA Boards have explored various ways to create interest and new members. We are not the only long-time organization in the Clear Lake area to have experienced a membership decline.

We would not have been able to have a Home Tour in 2020 regardless of health concerns. Homeowners have become very "risk-averse" and unwilling to have their homes on the tour. We could not get homes! The Home Tour has been an HSLBA Bay Area event for the past 30+ years!

Your board is also taking some cost-cutting measures and have decided that rental of a storage unit can be canceled. Board members are continuing to evaluate the viability of the organization for the future and we will keep you informed as things arise

I hope this message answers some of your questions about HSLBA and our status.

Sincerely,

Vicki Buxton, President

In Deepest Sympathy - William Whipkey

We have received word that William ("Bill") Whipkey has passed away in Nevada. He recently moved there to be close to his sister and his family. Bill was a devoted member of HSLBA for many years, a great supporter of the Home Tour and the Ima Hogg competition. He was also a beloved member of the tenor section of HSLBA's Note-Ables singing group. He will be greatly missed!
